Hundreds Will Testify Right Here in N. Y. State.

Binghamton, N. Y.—"Some years ago I was a great sufferer from nervous dyspepsia and I suffered so for an hour or two after eating, could hardly stand it. My aunt urged me to try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and I used three bottles in all. At once, within twenty minutes after taking the first dose, I felt positive relief, and continued growing better and stronger daily, and was entirely cured by the use of the three bottles; moreover, the cure has proved permanent as I have never had any return of these symptoms.

"I am now starting my husband on 'Golden Medical Discovery' for stomach trouble and rheumatism and know it will benefit."—Mrs. James Birdsell, 82 Pearne St., Binghamton, N. Y.

Now is the time to bring to your aid Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (in tablet or liquid form). This wonderful remedy helps to restore stomach to its natural health and strength and to secure proper flow of the digestive juices, a good appetite and full digestion of the food you eat. It invigorates the liver, regulates the bowels and purifies and enriches the blood.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is absolutely free from alcohol and injurious drugs. You can take it and be certain you will find it a true blood-maker, tissue-builder, and restorative nerve tonic and that it will produce no evil after-effect. Thousands—probably many of your own neighbors—are willing to recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because it has made them stronger in body, brain and nerve.

You can get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form from dealers in medicines.—Advt.

ASK FOR BUSES IN WASHINGTON HEIGHTS SECTION

Board of Estimate Hearing on Proposed Lines Brings Out Demand for Stages.

A brilliant array of legal talent appeared before the Board of Estimate to-day on the formal hearing of the New York Motor Bus Company, an Independent, anti-Interborough concern, for a franchise to run motor buses in 5 and 10-cent zones in Manhattan. The Franchise Committee of the Estimate Board, comprising Mayor Mitchell, Aldermen President Mathews and Borough President McInerney and Borough President Mathews of the Bronx, has already recommended that the New York Motor Bus Company be granted the franchise. It is now up to the whole Board.

Reginald Pelham Bolton, who announced that he represented the Washington Heights Taxpayers' Association, declared that while he was not concerned in the controversy between the two bus companies, he believed that the people of Washington Heights would prefer an extension of the present bus service in that neighborhood to what he termed a "new service of a doubtful and uncertain character." Mr. Bolton rather proudly asserted that "we can afford to pay ten cents," meaning the people of Washington Heights. Mr. Bolton added that the residents of his section preferred an extension of the existing bus lines to a continuation of strap hanging. Similar sentiments were expressed by representatives of the Upper Manhattan Property Owners' Association, another Washington Heights civic organization.

Other protests against bus routes were heard from the people living on West Forty-sixth Street on the ground that there is no public necessity for a route in that particular neighborhood; from Barnard College and the Park Avenue Association. It is claimed that it is now necessary to vacate some of the classrooms in the college because of traction noises and that if a new bus route is established on two sides of the institution conditions will be unbearable.

The Park Avenue Association, claiming to represent $15,000,000 worth of assessed valuations, declared that a bus route would be a "serious menace, would depreciate property values to an alarming extent, that the city would suffer in tax returns as a result and that there is no necessity for another route." It is claimed by the Park Avenue Association that the new subways will absorb the north and south traffic and that Park Avenue, the only longitudinal residential street in the city, should be spared. Finally, it was argued, the dangers from skidding on the asphalted grades would greatly increase accidents.

The New York Railways Company was represented by William D. Guthrie and the Interborough by James L. Quackenbush. John M. Bowers, counsel for Theodore Roosevelt in the Barnes libel suit, represented the Third Avenue Railway Company, and William H. Page the Fifth Avenue Coach Company. The New York Motor Bus Company, which is fighting the traction combine, was represented by former Chairman of the Public Service Commission William R. Wilcox and Bainbridge Colby.

It was decided by Acting Mayor McInerney after it had divided from 6,000 feet to escape his fire. The pilot was a Saxon and the observer a Prussian. They immediately landed, accused each other, quarrelled, and finally fought to the great amusement of their captors.

Lorraine was formerly the husband of Julie Opp, now the wife of William Favreham.

ROBERT LORRAINE, ACTOR-AVIATOR, GETS GALLANTRY MEDAL.

ROBERT LORRAINE

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Among the names mentioned in the latest official Gazette is that of Robert Lorraine, the actor-aviator, who has received the military cross for gallantry.

Capt. Lorraine brought down a German Albatross after it had dived from 6,000 feet to escape his fire. The pilot was a Saxon and the observer a Prussian. They immediately landed, accused each other, quarrelled, and finally fought to the great amusement of their captors.

Lorraine was formerly the husband of Julie Opp, now the wife of William Favreham.

Fire at Lake Hopatcong.
LAKE HOPATCONG, N. J., Nov. 18.—Fire early this morning destroyed the annex of the old Van Houten house, two bungalows, a barn, and threatened a number of other structures, including the schoolhouse, those of the Kenilworth Lumber and Stone Company and its yards. Damage estimated at $20,000 resulted from the fire, which is thought to have been started by an incendiary.

CONGRESSMAN LOFT'S SON FREED IN COURT; ARREST A MISTAKE

Threats Made of Complaint to Commissioner Woods and of Suits Against Policeman.

George L. Loft, the twenty-three-year-old son of Congressman George W. Loft, was discharged by Magistrate Cobb today after the story of his arrest last night had been told in the West Side Court. Loft happened to come out of the Childs restaurant in Columbus Circle just as Policemen Richard Griffin and Benjamin King were sweeping down on a gang of rowdies who had been annoying girls.

The policemen testified to the behavior of five prisoners arraigned with Loft, starting with one another, bumping, passing by and insulting girls. The trial got two girls to make a complaint, when they refused the policemen rushed the group, including Loft. He protested and told them who he was. When they told him they did not care, he made threats and said he would telephone Police Commissioner Woods.

"I was with my friend, Alfred Rooney," said young Loft, "and as he was paying our check in the restaurant I strolled slowly out, just in time to be grabbed by these policemen. I tried to tell them who I was and asked why I was arrested. They said: 'You're a fresh guy. Come on down to the house, and you'll find out why.'"

"From the West Forty-seventh Street station I was taken to the Night Court, but Magistrate Krotel refused to let me speak and sent all the prisoners away, on their own parole, including me."

Ex-Civil Service Commissioner Alfred J. Talley of No. 165 Broadway, counsel for Mr. Loft, said it was an outrage that the prisoner should have been treated as he was, and that in the Night Court, created for the special purpose of enabling innocent persons to get speedy justice, he had been refused a hearing by the Magistrate. He asked Magistrate Cobb to send a copy of the minutes to Commissioner Woods.

Mr. Cobb refused to send the minutes or to criticize Magistrate Krotel or to reprimand the policemen, though he said he thought they had used poor judgment. Congressman Loft left court very indignant and angry. He said he would prefer charges to Commissioner Woods and that he will press his son's suits for damages against Griffin and King to the utmost.

PERNAS ARE SENTENCED.

Mrs. Bryant, Who Helped Conviction, Will Quit Hunting Down White Slavers.

William Pernas, convicted of white slavery largely through the work of Mrs. Josephine A. Bryant, Bryn Mawr College graduate, was to-day sentenced to Sing Sing for eight years and two months by Judge Nott in the Court of General Sessions. His brother, Michael, who was also convicted, was sentenced to five years.

Mrs. Bryant is the wife of a Newton (Mass.) chemist and before aiding the police here he had assisted the United States Department of Justice in getting evidence against white slavers.

It first became known that Mrs. Bryant had aided the police when she testified against the Pernas brothers. Her husband objected to her continuing in the work because of the notoriety. Mrs. Bryant decided not to take any further active part in trapping slavers.

TAXPAYERS OPPOSE NEW PHONE COMPANY'S PLEA FOR A FRANCHISE

Realty Owners and Staten Island Chamber of Commerce Are Also Against It.

The Board of Estimate to-day conducted a public hearing on the application of the Great Eastern Telephone Company for a franchise to compete with the New York Telephone Company. The new company promises a 5-cent message in all parts of the city, official business of the city at a cent a message, business services at 2 to 4 cents per message and $4 a month private line.

Commissioner William Williams, of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, stated in a communication to the Board that "at this stage it would seem sufficient to point out that a serious electrical control situation will arise if a duplicate telephone plant be authorized, with its many thousands of miles of additional conductors, for which space must be found on poles and in subways."

Edmund L. Mooney, appearing for the New York Telephone Company, opposed the petition, declaring the applicant company was merely a "paper corporation." A memorandum which the New York Telephone Company laid before the Board stated the Great Eastern Telephone Company "is not a lawfully existing corporation; the company and its associates have shown themselves incapable of operating any telephone system; no reason is given for the establishment of another telephone system in the City of New York" and further that "the public policy of this and other States is strongly in favor of the maintenance of public utility properties and against competition."

Objections to the franchise application were raised also by the United Realty Owners' Association, the West Side Taxpayers' Association, the Staten Island Chamber of Commerce, the Ozone Park Board of Trade and the Rockaway Board of Trade.

The petition was sent back to the Bureau of Franchises, which wished more time to investigate its merits.

POET LAUREATE HALL MUST SING IN PRISON FOR NEXT TWO YEARS

Swindler of Other Poets Found Guilty of Using Mails to Defraud.

John T. Hall, poet laureate of Columbus Circle, who wooed thousands of dollars out of woeful of the muse from Maine to New Jersey and from Atlanta to the sea, was to-day found guilty on three indictments for using the mails to defraud and was sentenced by Judge Rufus E. Foster in the United States District Court to two years in Atlanta. The jury was out fifty minutes.

Judge Foster imposed a sentence of two years on each count in each of the three indictments, but made the terms run concurrently, so that two years will be the extent of his punishment.

Hall was apparently unmoved when ordered to stand up for sentence. Judge Foster told him that the scheme to defraud the mails was the most flagrant which had ever come under his observation.

Judge Foster said: "I will take into consideration what your attorney has advanced on behalf of leniency and also your age. You are a good musician and might yet become a good citizen. There is no doubt as to your ability and it is your fault that it has been misdirected."

Judge Foster said in answer to George Gordon Battle, counsel for Hall, that in the event of an appeal being taken, he would be inclined to fix the bail of Hall at $10,000. His bail during the trial was $5,000.

FIND TWO DEAD, ONE DYING

Police Work on Theory of Suicide Paired in Up-State Tragedy.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 18.—County authorities today began an investigation of the deaths of David G. Larrabee, forty, and his stepson, Edward Frederick, nine, whose bodies were found in their home at Sandy Creek, near here, last night. Mrs. Larrabee was found unconscious beside her husband's body and physicians do not expect her to live.

The authorities are working on the theory of a suicide pact.

The boy's body was badly scratched and bruised. The police believe Larrabee and his wife agreed to take poison and forced David to take it. The boy's lips rather than leave him behind, an orphan. Larrabee had been despondent because he feared he was about to lose his position.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeit imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines.

It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

The May Manton Fashions

SETS such as this one are being so much worn this season that they are really important for cap, neckpiece and muff to match are in the height of style. These are so simple and easy to make that they can be undertaken by any mother without the least bit of hesitancy. Here the material is fur, and often there will be sets that have belonged to the older folk that can be out over for this purpose, while there are also many possibilities to be found in material. The fur plushes are wonderfully beautiful and they make most attractive sets of this sort, and velvet with a little edge of fur makes a very pretty effect; on the scarf the fur could be used around all the points and the openings of the muff, while the brim of the cap is made of fur and the crown of velvet. Sometimes mothers like to make sets of this sort of material to match the coat or broadcloth, duvetyne or corduroy, and they are pretty indeed, besides being eminently comfortable. The muff is round, the lining is made exactly like the outside and the straight end and one pointed end and there is an opening in the pointed end through which the straight one is passed. The cap consists of a round brim which is joined on to the other. If liked, a little feather or ornament can be arranged at the left side.

For the larger size will be used a 3 yard of material 28 inches wide, 4 yard 48 or 54 inches wide. The pattern No. 5831 is cut in two sizes, for 2 or 4 years and for 6 or 8 years.
